

ASCI 254 – Aviation Legislation

Tim O’Leary

Aviation Legislation is a study of the evolution of federal civil aviation regulations in the United States. This course examines the past and present problems prompting regulation of the industry, the resultant safety legislation, airport development funding legislation, and international aviation legislation.

Required for AS/BS

Professional Aeronautics.

Term V – Registration Open NOW!!!
Elective for other degree

6, 7, 8 July programs 28, 29 July

Fridays 1730-2230 & Sat./Sun.

0900-1700